

CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
INTRODUCTION	v
PREFACE	vii
LETTER FROM GEN. JOHN J. PERSHING.....	ix

PART I.

THE 321ST INFANTRY.

I. LIFE AND TRAINING IN AMERICAN CAMPS.
Organization of Regiment—First Days in Camp—Important Events During the First Months in Camp—Changes in Staff Officers and Company Commanders—Preparation for Overseas Service.....	3
II. "OVER THERE."
The Voyage—Hoboken to Liverpool—Expe- riences in Historic Old England—First Impressions of France and the French— Through France on Cattle Cars—First Over- seas Training Area—Ordered to the Front— Under Shell Fire—Experiences in Front Line Trenches—German Infantry Attack—Sec- ond Overseas Training Area—Back to the Front—Forced Night Marches and Their Horrors	19
III. "OVER THE TOP."
Meuse-Argonne Offensive—The "Abomina- tion of Desolation" Around Verdun—Official Account of Operations of 321st Infantry, November 11, 1919.....	42